

The Pennsylvania Department of Health has updated their web page with all important information needed for EMS providers. Below you will find directions on how to access the following...

The main website is as follows:

www.health.state.pa.us/ems

Click on 'Health Services & Resources'

Click on 'EMS'

Click on 'EMS in PA'

From there you can access the following:

➤ 'New EMS Practitioner Registry'

Continuing Education processing system called EMS Registry is where a practitioner can now log on to view their own continuing education credits/record.

➤ 'Learning Management System'

Once registered, the user will receive a user name and password by email and they may log onto the site at www.paprepared.net to begin taking education courses. After successful completion of a class, it will be automatically uploaded to your state continuing education file/record.
